A Kentish Romance Award Entry Form 2017

Please complete this entry form and send it to us together with a copy of your love story (1000 words max.). Your entry should be accompanied by a photograph of you and your partner. Please also feel free to send us comments from friends and family.

It's absolutely free to enter and the winning entry will receive a fabulous Spa weekend for two and an opportunity to have their love story published within A Kentish Ceremony Magazine.

All entries will be regarded as 'Strictly Private & Confidential'.

The Organisers reserve the right to publish the winning story within A Kentish Ceremony magazine and do not give permission for the story to be published within any other publication until after it has appeared within A Kentish Ceremony. The judge's decision is final.

Please try and include the following in your entry;

How and where did you meet?

What was your initial impression of each other?

What qualities made you fall in love?

Were there any obstacles to your romance? If so, how were they overcome?

Let us know about the romantic proposal of marriage and your wedding plans and why you think your relationship is so special that you should be considered Kent's Most Romantic Couple.
